High Garden of Sculptures

Sculptures Garden Unity HiGS teufelsberg berlin The nature of reason; artistically connected with the reason of nature. I cordially invite you; Seconds, minutes or even hours, enjoy your precious time, far away from consumption, here in the HiGS Berlin High Garden of sculptures. I am a subject and belong to the human family, as do you.

Sculptures Garden Unity HiGS teufelsberg berlin Mané Wunderlich Floor Sculpture Old Wood Island UnityBig On an area of the 50,000 m² private grounds, visitors can admire outdoor art and the Teufelsberg Berlin radar station. Here you will find one of the largest street art galleries in the world; designed by international artists of the street art scene. Images reach sizes of up to 270 m². Artworks, installations and sculptures by Mané Wunderlich create another world on the property. Art is free.

The natural orientation of the Sculpture Garden (HiGS) takes into account the openness and transparency of the buildings and the surrounding area. On display are sculptures and installations, such as floor sculptures "UnityBig", "Floor Sculptures 0 and 1", "In Germany Brodelts" "Wäldchen 2021 – Ausgegrenzt"; «The Dragon, »The Blue Bee, the installations "Denk & Zeit", "Im Rahmen der Dauerwelle", "Ein offene Schrank – Wo führt das hin" and much more need to be explored.

You are invited to constantly change the viewer's perspective to discover new things, to look closely, to understand details, to always stay on the lookout and in motion. I encourage you to explore and you will be unsorted, that's fine. There is also a one here, but with an important meaning that comes on an equal footing with zero. The sculptures are embedded in nature, artistically linked to the reason of nature. They were artistically connected to nature with reason, much now has its place.

Visual axes have been unconsciously created; feelings and memories are awakened. Get your individuality, use your personal freedom, later enjoy the grove 2021 – Excluded or G further, how cool. In the Sculpture Garden (HiGS), suggestions have been created that need to be discovered. It's about the behind, before, above, below or just to conjure up a smile again; far away and yet so close.

Mané Wunderlich THE DRAGON – looking sharply at the entrance of the HiGS

Now let's stroll a little. The dragon at the entrance, the master of all elements such as fire, water, air and earth. Along the way to the HiGS (High Garden of Sculptures), the path is lined with sculptures made of stone and mixed materials, finds of the site, newly formed. The path leads straight to HiGS Platz.

On the HiGS square, an installation (approx. 15 m x 3.50 x 3.50 m) with the title "In the context of the perm" was created, various topics are and have already been presented. For example, "The election office is closed or open for a longer period of time" in 2020 and currently "Human dignity is inviolable, birds fly" in 2021. A monumental work, a floor sculpture made of reclaimed wood, "UnityBig", the difference that unites us, leaning on the hill.

Photo: Mané Wunderlich "UnityBig" Berlin Teufelsberg – Bird's eye view The well-known sign "Unity" represents a peaceful symbiosis of Berlin's landmarks: "Radio and TELEVISION Tower, Brandenburg Gate and the Reichstag dome, as a unifying sign in the world. Another universal idea of unity. You are asked to add a branch, so it will stay longer. The large floor sculpture stands for the union of opposites and heralds a new beginning.

Vis á vis offers a seating area, made in the form of a stage, your performance; lined with clocks, the installation "DENK & ZEIT". In the dome of the floor sculpture "UnityBig" there is a seating area. On the way up; a bear squats, waiting, placed next to the lettering UNITY made of stones. The ascent is possible from fairytale square.

Looking towards the fairytale square, you can already see the sculpture "Yes & No", the way there is lined with stone sculptures, "The Duck" or "IT-The Man".

Mané Wunderlich Stone Sculptures: THE DUCK and IT THE HUMAN BEING

On the Märchen Platz are the installation "Award of the Storytellers Visiting? No. It is your home"; the project "Wäldchen 2021- Ausgegrenzt", the installations "open office" and boat tour, the floor sculpture "Mann mit Hut", the sculptures "Ja & Nein", "Vogelstrauß", "Pilzpaar", etc.m.

Mané Wunderlich – Fairytale Square at HiGS Here you can think for yourself and not pass on the quotes of others. Make your own experiences, this is expressly desired in the name of art, go for a walk with an open eye. Thoughts are free. Discover.

Mané Wunderlich – Fairytale Square at HiGS Discover the old wood islands, floor sculpture 0Wunderlich and 1Wunderlich. "0Wunderlich" a part of the HiGS on the teufelsberg Berlin. "Zero" is the difference between two identical numbers, considered to be the same object that combines different compatible properties. Included in the HiGS as a neutral element – the only real number that is neither positive nor negative. Complemented by a pair of gloves in the middle and a gesture to implement digitization. The natural installation "1Wunderlich" announces the beginning. The number "one" is the sign of unity and unity. Far away as the largest digit of the dual system, a reclaimed wood island was created next to the "0Wunderlich". The artifact is 1 zig-like and true – embedded in nature – in the HiGS. A work of art in the context of digitality, without 0 and 1 nothing works. Here you are not visiting, you are also at home here. A thought, think freely, think for yourself. Cultural workers, cultural workers No! here you hide the outside world. Red-redGreen pinkinks... there is no limited space and no frame, just open to EVERYONE.

Humanity must survive. Is the majority wrong? Reason and foresight. Find your potentials unfold them, live, you are human. Understand you are wanted, otherwise you would not be here, you yourself are a living being. We are a human family. Nice that you read this or are just here. Welcome. Look up here all out on one of the highest places in Berlin. Started years ago to make a symbolic beginning, for a company "UnityBig 2032", to organize the life of humanity within the destroyed human society, and to begin a positive future in this context. The installation "OfenWunderlich" in Germany brodelts, 2016, an open office – take care, 2016, half a boat – "Boat tour" 2021, stranded, "The blue bee" – the sting of the thought, "an open cabinet – where does it lead".

A lot happens at the same time in dependence – construction, and degradation, both. Since every single monument consists of a living part, the constantly changing being tree, and a part, i.e. a shape, mass, size, weight. The human catalogue of values seems to be approaching that of the animals with which we have the survival instinct in common. Factory farming, especially cage keeping, is being abolished, and now humans? Animals, trees, everything is disenfranchised. I want to make these trees, these animals and also humans legally capable again. They are disenfranchised. You know this very well, that you are disenfranchised. I regarded trees as essential subjects, like people who now only find themselves viewed as objects that seem to lack rights or are simply deleted.

Mané Wunderlich High Garden of Sculptures (HIGS) teufelsberg berlin The "Wäldchen 2021 – Ausgegrenzt" offers itself to think these thoughts further or at least to process them. Art is the only force that achieves social change only through human creativity, think. My wish, take your personal responsibility again and think along, in the here and now. The space for these things is open. Connect here, which for me is real and real life.

You are at home, in nature. We remain beings subject to nature, the nature of reason. But the more artificial intelligence we create, the more natural ones we seem to sacrifice. Think about why buy a piece of clothing when you can own a work of art. Maybe redesign a used part and keep it in circulation or give it away... oh yes, go for a walk; prolongs your life.

"Wäldchen 2021 – Excluded" HiGS

Mané Wunderlich, Installation "Cognitive Dissonance", HiGS HIGH GARDEN OF SCULPTURES, Materials: (textiles, stone, wood, reinforcing iron (probation steel), fine-meshed wire fence, earth, linen, cotton and wool, horsehair, wire, parts of an umbrella), three figures and a bird 2022... and one more thing comes to mind. We will experience the lucky surprise. We breathe.

Yes, even if it contradicts each other. There are two beliefs. It is a picture, perhaps a worldview; recognize, check for yourself and create your beautiful picture. You come out of there again, I'm/are/are safe... Along the path at the end of the HiGS past the loop, the double forest spirit with the vocabulary – love, art and humor – the rooted butterfly on the trunk; hahahaha, a crocodile at the exit; resting and still – without effect.

Mané Wunderlich, "Das Krokodil", HiGS – HIGH GARDEN OF SCULPTURES teufelsberg berlin, Materials: (top earth, sand, stones, wood, marble), 2022

However, wide awake and observes everything that happens in his environment. Satisfied with what life offers. Calm and confident in the knowledge that it will get what it needs. Independently relying only on yourself and your abilities. Replenishing physical and mental energies through inactivity before the reserves are totally depleted. Never totally exhausting. To be in balance and in harmony with oneself; not to be disturbed by anything or anyone. Motto: "Live and let live". Everyone is a crocodile. On!... to the "base plate"; Confusion desired. One more round. Access from Fairytale Square, past the installation "open office" Down the hill at the couch 😊 The star is you, life is sacred. The existing forms a unity. Here peaceful, happy and free.

Mané Wunderlich, "MISCHWESEN", HiGS – HIGH GARDEN OF SCULPTURES teufelsberg berlin, Materials: (top earth, sand, stones, wood, vine, plastic cable covers), 2022 Maybe they are puzzle pictures? They show several, usually two, different images in one. They are mixed beings. The sovereignty of interpretation lies with you. It could also be: "I see something you don't see." Sculptures have been created here, the content of which changes with the changed position of the viewer. Move. The desire for ambiguity is always fascinating, as well as the blurring.

It's your day, up here – teufelsberg berlin. Unity- The difference that unites us. WKU (WHIMSICAL ART TRAIL UNITY) After visiting the listening station, you can then walk or walk along the WKU (WUNDERLICHE KUNSTPFAD UNITY) five times a week for 30 minutes each. Open 24/7. Outside the premises of the former listening station or spy station. The individual sculptures are staged within the location – it allows a play with the viewer's perspective. The artist Mané Wunderlich has literally embedded his floor sculptures in nature, so that the structure and structure, nature and essence of the respective sculptures can be understood as a paradigm for the infinite actual and idealistic space. Nature as value, interaction and the interactions of the various elements in the forest ecosystem, values with which humans must handle carefully.

Enjoy the sunrise, the beginning of the day; of life. On average, each of us has 80 years to nurture and cultivate reason against envy, resentment, greed, fear or just laziness to think, the weeds that grow so quickly in hiGS. The world does not become a better place by itself, through historical dialectics. We should take care of it ourselves. It must be maintained. Otherwise, it will not be able to develop further. I have already started. The interplay between reason and feeling in aesthetic perception, in the justified necessity of the idea of progress and in the ethical decision not to be impressed by the idea of death, the nature of reason becomes more precisely recognizable.

Enjoy the sunrise, the beginning of the day; of life. Autumn heralds the renewal. We should live on as women and men, not as chimeras, or as hybrid beings between man and machine. We should not become managers of our earth but remain a part of our earth. Nature is not a hostile world. It must not be ideologised.

The natural sciences cannot be transformed into machines, interventions in the weather and electromagnetic measures should be avoided. It fails, the boomerang is already there. We live on the friendliest planet in the world, you can find a part here, art in the HiGS, thoughts of the time. Create your new mindset, here in the suburb that we have lost, seize this moment. Life and food have always existed, women and farmers. The technology can no longer be overlooked. An open closet – "Where does this lead?"; take a boat tour or climb "UnityBig" as a reminder a photo in the background the listening station.
